"After the President has announced the beginning of voting, no representative shall interrupt the voting except on a point of order in connection with the actual conduct of the voting."

We shall now begin the voting process. Ballot papers will now be distributed.

Required absolute majority: 97
Number of votes obtained:
Mr. Patrick Lipton Robinson (Jamaica) 121
Ms. Susana Ruiz Cerutti (Argentina) 68

Mr. Patrick Lipton Robinson has obtained an absolute majority in the General Assembly.

I have communicated the result of the voting to the President of the Security Council.

I have also received a letter from the President of the Security Council, which reads:

“I have the honour to inform you that at the 7301st meeting of the Security Council, held on 7 November 2014, for the purpose of electing one member of the International Court of Justice for a term of office beginning on 6 February 2015, Ms. Susana Ruiz Cerutti obtained an absolute majority of votes.”

As a result of the voting that has taken place independently in the General Assembly and the Security Council, no candidate has obtained an absolute majority in both bodies. In accordance with the provisions of Article 11 of the Statute of the Court, it will therefore be necessary to hold another meeting to fill the remaining vacancy.

I propose that the present meeting be adjourned and the 44th meeting held immediately to vote on the remaining vacancy.

The meeting rose at 4 p.m.
